Seasonal Activities

Depending on what season you come to town, Fairfield has a lot of exciting events you can attend. Make sure to check out the City of Fairfield Illinois Event Calendar to see what's happening in town!

<https://cityoffairfieldillinois.com/events-things-to-do/event-calendar/>

Wayne County Agricultural Fair – July

The Wayne County Agricultural Fair happens every summer. The fair showcases farm animals, 4-H projects, photography, arts and crafts, quilts, produce and baked goods. Enjoy carnival rides, taffy, cotton candy and much more on the midway. Grandstand events every night feature Tractor Pull, Demolition derby, horse races and more. Free grounds entry.

Festival Season - August & October

Seasons start to change and fall colors are on display. August through October is Festival Season in Southern Illinois. Fairfield and the surrounding communities host many local & seasonal events - the Fall Fun Fest in Fairfield, Wayne City Bean Days, Geff Frontier Days, Johnsonville Community Days, the Centralia Hot Air Balloon Fest, the Cisne Reunion just to name a few.

One of our most popular destinations in the fall is Shreve's Pumpkin Patch. Shreve's is family owned and operated and has a variety of activities: pumpkin patch, hayrides, corn pit, play equipment for kids, corn food and more!

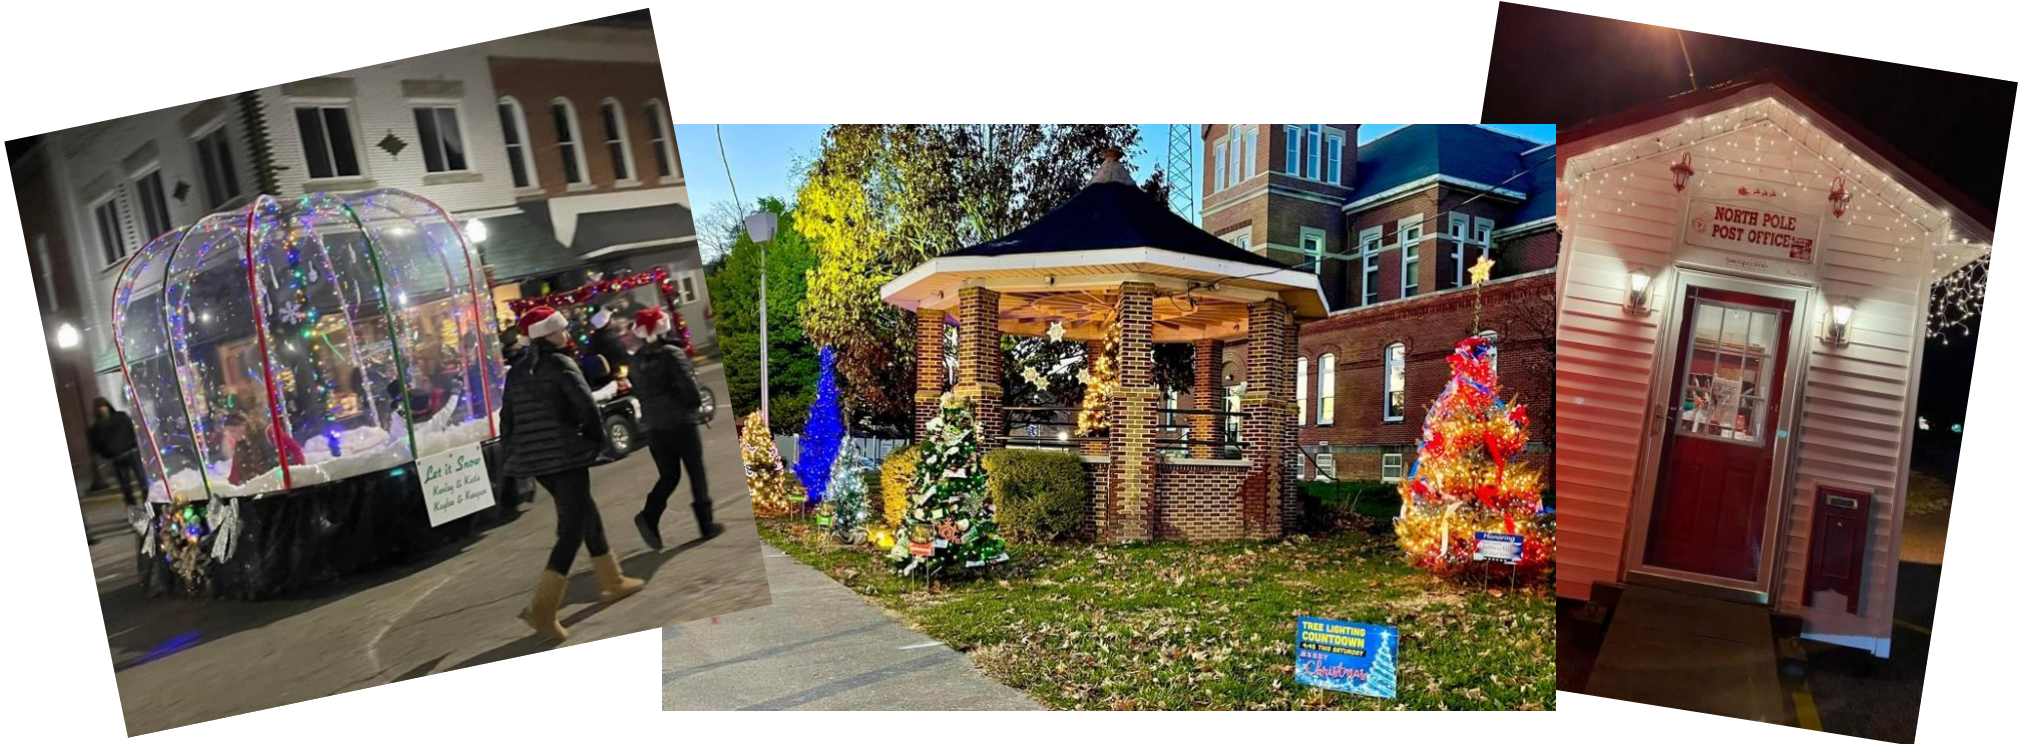

Willow Creek Venue – Concerts and Events

Willow Creek Venue is located just south of Fairfield on Highway 45. This amazing wedding and event venue hosts an array of activities throughout the year featuring a Vendor Market every Spring & Fall as well as various comedy shows, concerts and more! Find out more at willowcreekvenue.net

Holiday Season – November & December

The holidays are a magical time in Fairfield. Make sure to drive through the Festival of Lights in Leo French Park during December and see the many light displays and visit with Santa at the North Pole!

Make sure to take a walk around our courthouse and see all the Christmas trees and light posts that local groups and individuals have decorated. Our town Christmas parade is usually the first Saturday in December and draws a big, festive crowd.

Admire the Art

Fairfield Illinois boasts several murals, providing a great opportunity for locals and tourists alike to spend an afternoon on an art walk. Stop by Freedom Park on Main Street in downtown Fairfield and visit the mural titled "Love Thou Thy Land" created by David & Cheryl Harl. This 78 x 21 mural was inspired by the poet Alfred Tennyson and depicts a blend of small-town America and the history of Fairfield including several historical buildings, businesses, and landmarks.

While in downtown, peek in some of the alleyways and you will be delighted to see an ever-expanding collection of murals created by our fabulous local artists. Large scale painted floral gardens, butterfly wings, social commentary, and more.

Scenic Surroundings

Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter are all perfect seasons for scenic drives in Fairfield, Illinois. Open plains, fields to harvest, beautiful country barns, lakes and more.

Outdoor Recreation

From walking and picnicking to challenging friends to disc golf, Fairfield offers a variety of recreational and outdoor activities for all ages.

Leo French Park – Park Road

Leo French Park, the largest in the entire county, has baseball diamonds, basketball court, picnic shelters and an Olympic size swimming pool. Situated on rolling wooded acreage, it features a small lake that is home for many geese, ducks and swans that enjoy treats brought to them by visitors. The lake is also surrounded by a paved walking path. During the Christmas Holiday Season, the park is the location for Fairfield's Festival of Lights.

Lakeside Park – Tice Clevenger Drive

Offers lighted tennis courts, baseball, sand volleyball, ball diamonds, a playground and picnic shelter.

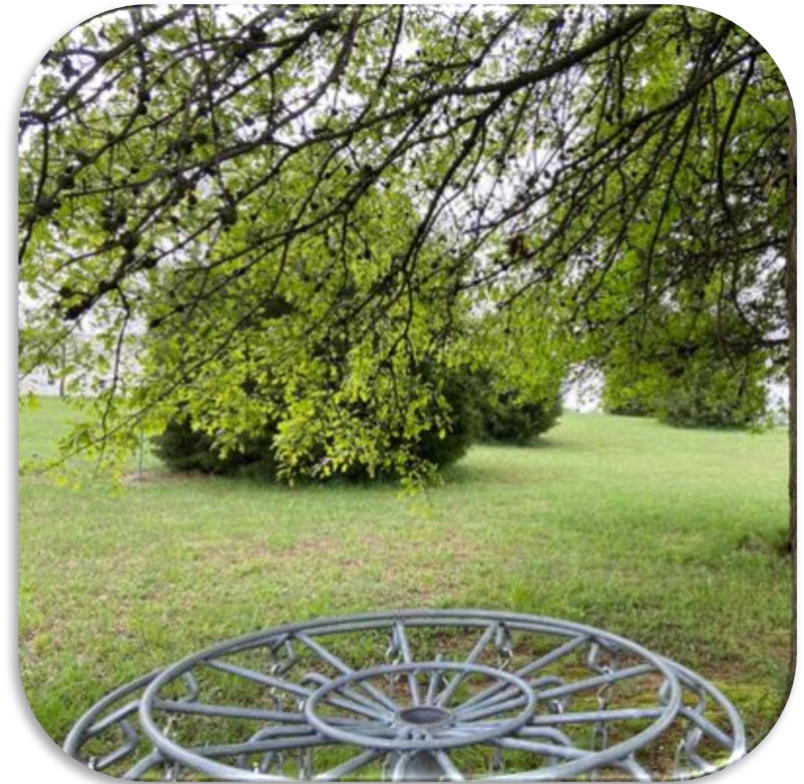

Love of Mike Park – Rosewood Lane

Offers a basketball court, playground, and covered picnic shelter.

Bob and Maxine Wood Park – 1106 Illinois Ave

Offers a disc golf course of mostly wide-open holes with a few wooded ones to test your growing skills. This family friendly recreation level course is perfect for beginner to intermediate players.

Atkinson Forest

Atkinson Drive

The Sam and Florence Atkinson Forest is an Illinois State Habitat area that offers hiking and walking paths.

Pickleball Players of Wayne County

This group is informal rec play and consists of a variety of skill levels. Beginners are always welcome, and the more advanced player can probably find a competitive game. They play at the Community of Christ Church Family Life Center, Windsor Lane, in Fairfield, Illinois. Each player is asked to contribute $2 at the door. They play Tuesdays and Thursdays 4:30-7:30 PM and Saturday mornings 8:30-11:30. Find them on Facebook @Pickleball Players of Wayne County.

Sam Dale Lake Conservation Area

612 County Road 1910 N, Johnsonville IL

Gently rolling terrain, lush woods and a beautiful lake make the Sam Dale Lake State Conservation Area the perfect spot for outdoor adventure. This 1,302-acre park is located northwest of Johnsonville in Wayne County and it has something for everyone: hiking, fishing, hunting, picnicking and more.

Fairfield Public Golf Course

701 NW 9th Street, Fairfield IL

Public 10 Hole Golf Course in Fairfield IL with affordable membership passes and daily rates for green fees and cart rentals. FPGC offers a summer league, host money and fundraiser tournaments, and provides fun for all ages in the community.

A Weekend in Fairfield for 21 and Up

When you're ready for a weekend out in Fairfield, we have a few ideas on places to go whether you're looking to explore Fairfield "like a local" or be a tourist in your own town! Here's a starting plan for your fun weekend visiting favorite local businesses.

If you're looking for a fun staycation, start on Friday by checking into the Victorian on Main, a beautiful bed and breakfast located in an 1895 Queen Ann Victorian home. Once you've toured this beautiful property and dropped off your bags in one of their charming rooms, you can go grab appetizers and a cocktail at Jovalou - don't leave without trying their famous boudin wontons! Then take a walk over to our local Elks Lodge for a delicious dinner and late-night drinks.

Wake up Saturday and grab breakfast at the Inn or sleep in and grab brunch at K&M Diner or Barbwire. During the day, you have many different options to choose from – play a round of golf, go shopping uptown at our boutique shops, take a stroll at Atkinson Forest or Leo French park. If you need an afternoon pick me up, stop by Bold Goat for one of their delicious coffees or teas. For dinner, try La Fuente or El Mexicano for drinks and Mexican cuisine. You can end the night by catching some live music or playing pool at JW Saloon.

Before ending your weekend, grab some breakfast at Five Brothers where you can get just about any breakfast food you can think of.

For more ideas, check out more of Fairfield's restaurants, retail, lodging and recreation options at cityoffairfieldillinois.com
